Dear Dr Amarpal Singh,

We are pleased to inform you that Honourpoint (www.honourpoint.in), a national-level initiative dedicated to honouring the fallen heroes of the Indian Armed Forces, is organizing the 7th edition of "Rang De Veer" – All India Open Online Painting Contest for school children across the country.

Contest Dates: 26th July (Kargil Vijay Diwas) to 15th August 2025 (Independence Day)

Theme: "My Country, My Soldier, My Pride" – a heartfelt tribute to the brave hearts who laid down their lives for the nation.

Participation: Completely free, with several prizes to be awarded to outstanding entries.

This initiative aims to instill national pride and raise awareness among young students about the courage and sacrifices of our Armed Forces, encouraging them to express their patriotic sentiments through the medium of art. Over the past six years, thousands of students from schools across India—both government and private—have actively participated in this contest. With your kind support, we hope that students from all government schools affiliated with the Punjab School Education Board (PSEB) will participate enthusiastically in this year's edition.

Contest Guidelines & Details:

English: www.honourpoint.in/rang-de-veer-2025

Hindi: www.honourpoint.in/rang-de-veer-2025-hindi

We particularly encourage participation from children with special needs, for whom ten exclusive prizes have been reserved. Schools may either conduct the contest internally on a suitable date or allow students to participate individually from home. To assist in outreach, downloadable posters in both English and Hindi are attached with this mail, which may kindly be printed and displayed on school notice boards or shared digitally.

About Honourpoint: Honourpoint is India's only digital platform devoted to preserving the memory of all fallen soldiers of the Indian Armed Forces since 1947. The initiative is managed by Honourpoint Foundation, a registered trust with 12A, 80G, and FCRA approvals from the Government of India. A brief introduction to the Foundation is also attached for your reference.

We request that you kindly circulate this information among all government schools under PSEB and encourage maximum participation in this meaningful national tribute through art.

Looking forward to your support.
